

Vermont Daily Transcript.

ST. ALBANS, VT.:
FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1868.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

THE FOURTH.—To-morrow being a legal holiday, no paper will be issued from this office.

A Good Thing.—A Street sprinkler.

WHEELER & BAILEY furnish about as nice dinner and tea sets as can be found in any place.

An advertisement of the New York Circus, which will exhibit here on the 27th, will soon appear in our columns.

SEVEN crates of crockery arrived on Wednesday, for Robert Kinsley.

FENIAN.—We suppose our venerable cotemporary would, in its unsearchable wisdom, rebuke us if we thoughtlessly ventured to suggest that there is likely to be a Fenian movement here soon; but nevertheless, we have not abandoned our opinion, given some time in June, that there would be a movement, and we venture to reiterate it. We say as the darkness did when he pulled the trigger of his gun, and then looked into the gun to see the progress of the ball: "It's a cannon!"

THE WHOLE HOG.—Twenty-one car loads of fat hogs passed through St. Albans on Wednesday, on the way to Boston from the west. As each car consists of two apartments, one above the other, and about 50 hogs could be accommodated on each floor, we judge, there must have been about two thousand hogs on the 21 cars.

JUNE SHIPMENT.—There were 6,825 tubs of butter shipped from St. Albans depot during the month of June. At 50 lbs. to the tub there would be 341,250 lbs.

There were also shipped during the same time 1,322 boxes Missisquoi water, and 394 of Vermont Spring water.

A car load of Welden Spring water has been ordered, and will be shipped in a few days.

STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS.—This Circus which will visit St. Albans on Tuesday of next week is without doubt one of the best that is travelling this summer. The Brooklyn Eagle of May 3 says: Stone & Murray have a circus which wields an unquestionable ascendancy in the realms of amusements. Under their supervision it has attained a popularity alike significant of their superior qualifications as managers, and the unequalled splendor of the entertainment they give their patrons. Tickets for this circus are now for sale at E. H. Huntington's Jewelry store.

THE FOUNTAIN.—Mr. Stone has commenced the erection of the fountain, in the neat little park at the south end of the depot, and a jet of water is already running there. A new flag staff has also made its appearance on the depot, 32 feet in height, and trains on the fourth will pass under the stars and stripes. Most things touch the hat to "Old Glory."

OTTAWA BEER.—Messrs H. L. Samson & Co. have introduced to this village a delicious beverage which has for its name, Ottawa Beer. It is made from root and barks formerly a favorite with the Ottawa Indians, and besides being a cool and refreshing drink is said to be excellent in relieving Dyspepsia and derangements of the liver. Try it!

The Resolution adopted last year as a basis for appointing delegates, was construed to be "one for each town, one for every 50 Republican votes cast for Governor in the previous year, one for every fraction of 25 or over." This construction gave Sheldon four delegates.

The Convention then proceeded to the nomination of County Officers to be supported at the ensuing election. Whereupon Hon. Bradley Barlow of St. Albans was named as first Senator, and no other name being mentioned, he was nominated by a cava voce vote. A count being called for, resulted in a large majority in favor of his nomination.

Hon. H. A. Burt of Swanton, and W. R. Hutchinson of Enosburgh, were respectively nominated as Senators by acclamation. For assistant Judge, Hon. Walter C. Stevens, of Highgate, was nominated by acclamation, and for second assistant, John K. Whitney of Franklin, and Harrison Northrop of Fairfield, were named, and the result of a ballot gave Mr. Whitney 33 votes, and Mr. Northrop 28, so that John K. Whitney was nominated.

For States Attorney, M. J. Hill of St. Albans, Willard Farrington of St. Albans, and M. R. Tyler of Bakersfield, were respectively named, the result of the first ballot being no choice, the vote cast being Farrington 28, Hill 19, and Tyler 15. On the second ballot Farrington had 35, Hill 17, and Tyler 10, and Willard Farrington was declared the nominee.

For Judge of Probate, Hon. Myron W. Bailey of St. Albans, was nominated by acclamation.

For Sheriff, James P. Place of Highgate and A. J. Soule of St. Albans, were named, the result of a ballot being 39 votes for Place, and 23 for Soule, whereupon James P. Place was declared the nominee for Sheriff.

For High Bailiff, Julius Halbert, of Fairfax, was nominated by acclamation. On motion, S. P. Carpenter, J. M. Hotchkiss and Almont Barnes were elected County Committee for the year ensuing.

In the matter of Town Committee, it was considered that this should be left to the towns in their primary meetings with the implicit understanding, that those heretofore chosen should continue to act as such till superseded by a new election.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were accepted and unanimously adopted. Resolved, That the Convention unqualifiedly accept the statement of principles set forth in the Resolutions adopted by the Republican State Convention at Burlington in all their length and breadth, and adopt them as our own.

Resolved, That Franklin County accept the responsibility of contributing her full proportion of a largely increased majority for the State ticket, over that given last year, and pledge ourselves as volunteers to secure a thorough canvass of the County, preparatory to the September Election, and for the National contest in November next, under the leadership of Grant and Colfax.

Resolved, That this Convention individually and collectively, pledge our united support of the candidates nominated this day, and will use all honorable means to secure their triumphant election by unprecedented majorities. On motion, adjourned sine die.

J. M. HOTCHKISS, Chairman.
A. J. SAMSON, Secretary.
